6. For students whose were entered on the student list on and after September 1 of this year, the first tuition payment, depending on the form of payment chosen, must be made within 14 days from the date of signing the contract for educational services.
The tuition fee for studies does not change depending on the admission period; the tuition amount is determined for the academic year.
7. In the final year of study, the entire tuition fee for a given semester, due to the completion of the educational program by the University, must be paid by the date of submission of the thesis.
8. In the case of study by foreigners, pursue studies on terms other than those applicable to Polish citizens, tuition fees for the first year of studies are paid no later than the date of issuance of the decision on admission to studies.
9. The change of the form of payment (not applicable to foreigners) for a given academic year can be made by the student before the beginning of the academic year, but no later than September 15. In particularly justified cases, the PSW Quaestor may agree to change the form of payment from a given semester. Any change in the form of payment requires the signing of an annex to the agreement by both parties. It is not possible to change the form of payment during the semester.

10. In the case of taking up a second course of study in the same department at the same time, tuition for studies is charged at 70% of the tuition for one of the courses in which the lower tuition applies (does not apply to foreigners). The above reduction is valid until the completion of the course of study for which it was granted.
In the case of taking a second course of study in the same department, after completing the first course, tuition fees for studies in the next course are charged at 70% of the tuition fees applicable to that course (not applicable to foreigners).
In the event of resignation from one of the majors, repeating a year in any of the majors or being on dean's leave in one of the majors, the student loses the right to a discount in the other course of study.
11. A student who accelerates the course of study is required to pay fees in proportion to the pace of the program of study.
12. Prior to obtaining approval for dean's leave, semester repetition, resumption of studies, the student is required to pay all arrears to the University up to the date of application for dean's leave, semester repetition, resumption of studies.
13. During the period of dean's leave, the student does not pay tuition fees for the period covered by the leave.

23. The amount of tuition fees in the following academic year may be subject to change in the event, when the price index of services and consumer goods announced by the Central Statistical Office, calculated from the beginning of studies for a given academic year, exceeds 10%, but not more than by the inflation rate.
24. The change in tuition fees referred to in paragraph 23 is made by amending the Fee Schedule by June 30 of the year preceding the academic year to which it will apply. The introduction of a new fee schedule requires the annexing of contracts for the provision of educational services. The student has the right, within 14 days from the delivery of the annex, to withdraw from the agreement. Withdrawal is equivalent to resignation from the studies.

RULES FOR REIMBURSEMENT OF FEES PAID

1. In the event of termination of the contract for the provision of educational services due to resignation or deletion of the student from the number of students, the student is entitled to settlement and reimbursement of the tuition fee paid. If a student is struck off the list of students during the academic year, the student is obliged to pay the fees only for the time of study up to the date of resignation. A person enrolled in a course of study who has not taken up a course of study is entitled to a refund of the entire tuition fee paid, provided, that he/she has notified the resignation from the studies before the start of the classes.
2. The above fee shall be determined in proportion to the number of reunions held until the date of deletion in relation to the total number of reunions planned in the semester in which the deletion occurred.

The tuition fee for the period used is calculated as follows:

$$\text{Charge per period used} = \frac{\text{Fees due for the entire semester} \times \text{number of sessions held}}{\text{number of scheduled assemblies per semester according to the schedule}}$$

3. For the purposes of the above calculation, it is assumed that the fee for a semester of study is equal to half of the fee for the entire year of study in a given course, regardless of whether it is the winter or summer semester. The fees due for the entire semester are conditioned by the payment system chosen by the student in accordance with § 2 paragraph 3 of the student's contract.
4. Settlement and refund of the fee paid shall be made on the basis of a written request from the student, indicating the number of the bank account to which the refund is to be made within 30 days from the date of removal from the list of students.
5. In the case of termination of the contract for the provision of educational services due to resignation or deletion of the student from the number of students, and the use of free enrollment fee by the student in the recruitment process, the University reserves the right to charge a one-time fee for carrying out all activities of an administrative and study qualification nature, from the amount of the fee paid, in accordance with the Table of Fees.
